

Partner Registration Help

A Cisco ID is required for Partner Registration. If you do not already have a Cisco ID, register now.

If you have forgotten your Cisco ID or password, login with your email address to begin the recovery process. For additional help, email Cisco Support.

If your company is new to Cisco, complete Partner Registration.

If your company is already a Cisco partner, associate your Cisco ID with a Partner Company:

1. Go to Partner Self Service and select Associate Myself with a Company.
2. Search for your company by Country and Company Name.
3. Select your company and location from the list, and then submit your request.

Your company administrator will be notified of your request by email. Upon approval of your company administrator, your Cisco ID and password will provide partner access.

Note: It might be necessary to remove your association with a previous partner company.

To do so:

1. Go to Partner Self Service and select the Access Management tab.
2. Then select the Company access button.
3. Finally select the View/Remove My Access button and follow the steps.

Thank you for choosing Cisco.
